

Professor Tomas A. Lipinski, PhD completed his Juris Doctor (J.D.) from Marquette University Law School, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, received the Master of Laws (LL.M.) from The John Marshall Law School, Chicago, Illinois, and the Ph.D. from the Graduate School of Library and Information Science, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Mr. Lipinski has worked in a variety of legal settings including the private, public and non-profit sectors. He has taught at the American Institute for Paralegal Studies and at Syracuse University College of Law. In summers he is a visiting faculty at the Graduate School of Library and Information Science, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign where he teaches courses in information policy and legal issues for libraries and information managers. He serves as Director and Professor of the School of Library and Information Science, Kent State University, Ohio.

Dr. Joachim Schöpfel is senior lecturer in library and information sciences (LIS) at the University of Lille 3, director of the French digitization centre for PhD theses (ANRT) and member of the GERiiCO research laboratory (culture, communication, information, document). He was manager of the INIST (CNRS) scientific library from 1999 to 2008 and head of the Lille 3 department of information and documentation sciences from 2009 to 2012. He is teaching library marketing, auditing, intellectual property and information science, and he is author of more than 150 papers, communications, etc. His research interests are scientific information and communication, especially open access and grey literature, copyright, library management and job development. The ANRT is funded by the French government for the production, dissemination, and archiving of French PhD theses from all disciplines and contributes to the digitization of academic collections.

Mr. Rene Dales is the Regional Sales Manager in the BeNeLux for EBSCO. He maintains relationships with different kinds of libraries and library consortia. EBSCO is entering its third decade as a leading provider of reference databases and eBooks for students, library patrons, doctors, nurses, business people and researchers around the world. Customer visits coupled with sales presentations, customer training sessions, and conferences are essential part of his field activities with academic and government libraries. EBSCO has an established license agreement with GreyNet since 2004 in which the full-text of articles in The Grey Journal, An International Journal on Grey Literature are made accessible via the LISTA-FT database along with GreyNet's Quarterly Newsletter and the collection of Program Books published for the International Conference Series on Grey Literature.

Dr. Dominic Farace is Head of GreyNet International and Director of TextRelease, an independent information bureau specializing in grey literature and networked information. He holds degrees in sociology from Creighton University (BA) and the University of New Orleans (MA). His doctoral dissertation in social sciences is from the University of Utrecht, The Netherlands, where he has lived and worked since 1976. After six years heading the Department of Documentary Information at the Royal Netherlands Academy of Arts and Sciences (SWIDOC/KNAW), Farace founded GreyNet, Grey Literature Network Service in 1992. He has since been responsible for the International Conference Series on Grey Literature (1993-2013). In this capacity, he also serves as Program and Conference Director as well as managing editor of the Conference Proceedings. He is editor of The Grey Journal and provides workshops and training in the field of grey literature.