

Forthcoming - Volume 13, Number 2, Summer 2017

'Finding and Bridging Knowledge Gaps via Grey Literature'

Contents – ISSN 1574-1796

Editor's Note

The GreyLit Report: Understanding the Challenges of Finding Grey Literature

Danielle Aloia and Robin Naughton, The New York Academy of Medicine Library (USA)

Looking for Information that is Not Easy to Find: An Inventory of LibGuides in Canadian Post-Secondary Institutions Devoted to Grey Literature Marcus Vaska, Alberta Health Services and Rosvita Vaska, University of Calgary (Canada)

Bridging the Knowledge Gaps: What Grey Literature does for the Library of Congress' Indigenous Law Portal Carla Davis-Castro, Library of Congress (USA)

Transition to Open Access and its implications on Grey Literature Resources Snježana Ćirković, Austrian Academic Library Consortium (Austria)

Collecting, organizing, and preserving diverse publication sources for the good of one community archive: Legal challenges and recommendations Andrea Copeland, Indiana University at Indianapolis, IUPUI; Tomas Lipinski, University of Wisconsin at Milwaukee; and Kyle Jones, IUPUI (USA)

The recent improvements on circulation of research results at the Japan Atomic Energy Agency Satomi Inagaki, Misa Hayakawa, Naomi Ebisawa, Mayuki Gonda, Takashi Nozawa, and Keizo Itabashi, Japan Atomic Energy Agency, JAEA (Japan)

ON THE NEWS FRONT

GL19 Program - Nineteenth International Conference on Grey Literature, 23-24 October 2017 in Rome, Italy

GL19 Call for Posters - 'Public Awareness and Access to Grey Literature' Submissions close on 25 September 2017

TGJ, The Grey Journal

International Journal on Grey Literature
Javastraat 194-HS
1095 CP Amsterdam
Netherlands

T/F +31-(0)20 331 2420

Email: journal@greynet.org

www.greynet.org/thegreyjournal.html

1992  2017