

GreyNet's Bucket List 2015

Community Sourcing for Grey Literature

The Grey Literature Network Service is dedicated to Research, Publication, Open Access, and Education in the field of Information and Library Science. Your content contribution today as an information professional and practitioner can be made through a number of leveraged and sustained channels:

- ❑ Enter your Bio in the 'Who is in Grey Literature' <http://greyguiderep.isti.cnr.it/userarea.php?langver=en>
- ❑ Endorse the Pisa Declaration on Policy Development for Grey Literature <http://greyguide.isti.cnr.it/>
- ❑ Respond to the GL17 Call for Papers <http://www.textrelease.com/gl17callforposters.html>
- ❑ Join GreyNet's LinkedIn Discussion Group <https://www.linkedin.com/groups/GreyNet-3718857>
- ❑ Follow GreyNet on Twitter <https://twitter.com/GreyLitNet>
- ❑ Enter a record in the GreySource Index <http://greyguiderep.isti.cnr.it/userarea.php?langver=en>
- ❑ Submit an article to The Grey Journal (TGJ) <http://www.greynet.org/thegreyjournal.html>
- ❑ Provide your research data for entry in the DANS Data Archive <http://www.greynet.org/dansdataarchive.html>
- ❑ Voice your comments and recommendations on GreyNet's Business Report <http://www.greynet.org/home/aboutgreynet.html>
- ❑ Other suggestions info@greynet.org

Grey Literature Network Service

Guide to Good Practices and Resources in Grey Literature

GreyNet International

Grey Literature Network Service
Javastraat 194-HS
1095 CP Amsterdam, Netherlands
Tel/Fax +31-(0)20 331 2420
info@greynet.org

- <http://www.greynet.org>
- <http://greyguide.isti.cnr.it/>