

Contents

'CONVERGENCE AND CHANGE IN GREY LITERATURE'

Toward a Definition of Grey Legal Literature	61
Taryn L. Rucinski (United States)
Copyright Reform and the Library and Patron Use of Non-text or Mixed-Text Grey Literature: A Comparative Analysis of Approaches and Opportunities for Change	67
Tomas A. Lipinski and Katie Chamberlain Kritikos (United States)
Library as Publisher: Convergence of New Forms and Roles of Textual and Non-Textual Grey Literature in Digital Scholarship	83
Julia Gelfand and Anthony Lin (United States)
Academic blogging consequences for Open Science: a first insight into their potential impact	91
Carla Basili with the assistance of Luisa De Biagi (Italy)
Share #GreyLit: Using Social Media to Communicate Grey Literature	97
Danielle Aloia and Robin Naughton (United States)
Public sharing of medical advice using social media: an analysis of Twitter	104
Gondy Leroy, Philip Harber, and Debra Revere (United States)

Colophon.....	58
Editor's Note.....	60
On The Newsfront
Conference Program - GL18 , Eighteenth International Conference on Grey Literature.....	114
Call for Posters – GL18, Leveraging Diversity in Grey Literature.....	116
Info Adverts
Slovak Centre of Scientific And Technical Information, CVTISR.....	82
The New York Academy of Medicine.....	96
Author Information.....	117
Notes for Contributors.....	119